

Blues manage subtle 'sackin

By SHANE McGARVEY

WYCOMBE Wanderers FC have sacked manager John Reardon. The 46-year-old team boss said he and the club parted company after a "disappointing season."

"There must be a lot of managers looking over their shoulders," said Reardon.

"The club said they sacked me because of disappointing results. We were third in the Isthmian league and won the Berks and Bucks Cup.

"But it must have been the most amicable sacking ever because afterwards I arranged the Stewart Atkins transfer.

"A friend of mine said he's going to enter my name for the Guinness Book of Records. Managers usually get sacked when their club is relegated, not when they finish third and win a cup.

"I've got no plans other than a break from football. If the right offer comes along I might consider it but you can't tell what's going to happen in the future," he said.

In a statement issued by the club, chairman Reg Williams said:

"After careful consideration the decision was taken by the officers and committee of Wycombe Wanderers to sack Mr. John Reardon. The club is disappointed that the season has not been as successful as hoped for. Mr. Reardon has been in charge of the club since 1981 and has achieved many successes, including winning the Berks and Bucks Senior Cup. The club will be looking for a new manager to take over the reins of the club next week."

Way is open for Lee to go back take up a new contract. If this had happened after John had been engaged for three years you could say he was sacked, he has just not been re-engaged.

"Do you see the subtle difference?" said Mr Williams. "Mr Lee has been sacked, but he has just not been re-engaged."

Then one of Volvo Pen-Overtake
where I was sitting!
hairy he should have been
If he thought it looked shining, the boat was he, way the boat was
That looked a bit hairy,
problems," he said.
I, think you're having
coat back.
from the pits and I took the job waving frantically er a couple of laps I saw out this was ridiculous! Af-covered across the water — announce left and right as it any monolith to chime —
I had been told to expect one.
get on much better with that another boat — but I didn't sent me straight out again in Olympic yachting coach, Bob Bond, the national purely.

manager at Loakes Park since Brian Lee left to spend more time on Bisham Abbey Sports Centre, where he is director.

Ted Powell came from Sutton and was sacked a year ago when he told Wycombe he had applied for a coaching job in Malawi. He subsequently got the job.

It seems that Wycombe, subconsciously or otherwise, are still trying to find a manager to live up to Brian Lee.

On Tuesday a very cautious Mr Lee said he didn't know if he'd be going back to Wycombe.

"I believe the chairman issued a statement to you. We have nothing else to add."

Blues' chairman Mr Williams said he expected to announce a new manager next week.

● Former Wycombe manager John Reardon (top left) their Berks and Bucks Senior Cup win over